ORDERS

New Delhi, the 5th January 1952

S.R.O. 36.—WHEREAS the Central Government is of opinion that an industrial dispute exists between employers and workmen in relation to some of the banking companies specified in Schedule I;

AND WHEREAS the Central Government considers it desirable to refer for adjudication the matters specified in Schedule II which are either matters in dispute or matters connected with, or relevant to, the said dispute;

AND WHEREAS the Central Government is further of opinion that the said dispute is of such a nature that the other banking companies specified in Schedule I are likely to be interested in, or affected by, that dispute and that it is desirable to include also those banking companies in that reference;

NOW, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers referred by section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Central Government hereby refers to the Industrial Tribunal constituted by the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour No. IR/100(4)/I, dated the 5th January, 1952, for adjudication the matters specified in Schedule II (being either matters in dispute or matters connected with, or relevant to, the dispute), as between employers and workmen in relation to all the banking companies specified in Schedule I.

SCHEDULE II

1. Scales of pay, including :—

- (a) whether the remuneration of workmen and their periodical increment should be correlated to their efficiency and attendance, and
- (b) whether, if basic scales are recommended, such scales of pay of particular categories should be uniform all over India and whether the difference in the cost of living of the various centres should be adjusted by the grant of compensatory allowances.

2. Dearness allowance to staff as well as pensioners. Can a portion of the dearness allowance be transferred to, and absorbed in, the basic wage? In particular can this be done in the case of banks in the United Provinces in respect of the allowance payable at the commencement of Shri B. B. Singh's award?

3. House rent allowance. If this allowance is payable, should it be paid to all workmen.

4. Other allowances (other than travelling allowance, conveyance allowance and halting allowance) payable, for example, education or children's allowance, washing allowance, hill allowance, fuel allowance, grain allowance, Poona Cantonment allowance, officiating allowance, scarcity allowance, border allowance, local allowance and six-monthly accounting allowance.
5. Bonus, including the qualifications for eligibility and method of payment.
6. Whether income and professional taxes payable by workmen should be paid on their behalf by banks?
7. Subsistence allowance during periods of suspension.
8. Right to existing terms of service where they are more liberal than those of the awards of this Tribunal.
9. Should banks be classified into different categories for the purposes of this adjudication and if so, on what lines?
10. Categories of workmen to whom the award of the Tribunal is applicable.
11. In what manner and to what extent do the decisions of the Tribunal require modification in the case of workmen of banks under moratorium.
12. Rules for fitting the existing staff into the revised scales of pay.
13. Provident fund, including the rate of contribution and the rate of interest.
14. Gratuity, including whether it should be compulsory or ex-gratia. Does the scheme recommended by Shri B. B. Singh for the United Provinces in his award need revision?
15. Pension, including the question whether any pension scheme should be introduced in banks having Provident Fund and/or gratuity Schemes.
16. Guarantee Fund.
17. Insurance against old age, sickness, death or injury from accident in the course of the discharge of duties.
18. Leave Rules.
19. Hours of work and overtime.
20. Medical aid and expenses.
21. Cash deposits, fidelity bonds and other securities to be furnished by staff including the questions :—
 - (a) whether failure to furnish such security should operate as a ban on confirmation, and
 - (b) whether the scheme of security and guarantee introduced by the Punjab National Bank Ltd. is suitable.
22. Recognition of the All India Bank Employees' Association and/or its constituent units.
23. Method recruitment, terms and conditions of service and procedure for termination of employment or for taking other disciplinary action.
24. Utilisation of proceeds from fines.
25. Whether head cashiers or treasurers' representatives or any workmen who perform their functions are to be treated as Department Incharges.
26. Waiving of age restrictions for promotion to supervisory grades.
27. Policy regarding transfer of staff.
28. Travelling allowance, conveyance allowance, halting allowance and joining time on transfer.
29. Whether cash compensation is payable to staff of branches situated in Pakistan who have had to come away to India and have not been employed in the branches in India.
30. Should bank pensioners be entitled to accept employment after retirement with or without the permission of the banks from which they draw their pensions?
31. Absorption of Bharat Bank Employees in the Punjab National Bank Ltd. and their service conditions.
32. Rules regarding promotions.
33. Works Committees. Should they be established or not?
34. Standing orders regulating the conditions of service of staff and the procedure in making amendments to them.

S.R.O. 37.—Whereas by an order of the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour No. LR-100(4)/II, dated the 5th January 1952, certain matters (being either matters in dispute or matters connected with, or relevant to, the dispute) as between employers and workmen in relation to certain banking companies including the banking companies specified in the schedule have been referred to an Industrial Tribunal for adjudication;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Central Government hereby prohibits the continuance of the strike in existence in the banking companies specified in the Schedule.
